五、Introduction:

Functions

- i. Basic stock information search: including the market trend, individual stock watching, chip stock selection, multi-picture trend, etc., you can understand the real-time dynamics of individual stocks and analyze the chip surface.
- ii. Novice teaching: Help users quickly understand the trading methods and processes of stocks and reduce the threshold for new trading stocks as much as possible.
- iii. Virtual trading: Provide users with a virtual stock trading platform, practice trading through this platform before actually buying and selling stocks, and accumulate stock trading experience to facilitate actual stock trading in the future.
- iv. Stock news prediction: Help users scan the news, quickly evaluate news through the neural network, and provide adequate interpretation.
- v. Stock Price Prediction: The next day's stock price is predicted using the stock's daily closing price through a neural network to provide users with a reference.
- vi. LINEBOT: Use the LINE chatbot to provide users with rich stock price information in response.

Features

- i. Provide clear and easy-to-operate stock viewing software suitable for novice users. In addition to the basic functions of disk viewing software on the market, it has added the popular deep learning field in recent years to provide users with more oriented reference.
- ii. Use natural language processing as a basic model to analyze and evaluate stock's news.
